SEPTEMBER 1996

NOTES FROM THE UNIT BOARD

by Stephanie McAdam

Welcome to a new season of bridge and tournaments from Unit 390. Your Unit board will be working hard to bring you our annual sectionals in September, November, January and March. The year will culminate in July, 1997 with the 35th anniversary of the first regional in Alberta. We look forward to exciting and challenging bridge, exemplary behavior at the table, and lots of fun for all participants.

At our annual general meeting on April 19, 1996, the new board was elected and the new executive is as follows:

President - Stephanie McAdam

VP & Special Events - Dan Bertrand

Secretary - Rod Hilderman

Treasurer - Dave Christison

Tournament Chair - Keith Falkenberg

Assistant Tournament Chair - Barry Emmment

Future Masters - Tessa Bombenon & Bruce Mottle

Many thanks to Brenda Bertrand, Judy Elson, and Alex Knox who have completed terms on the Unit Board. We will miss their efforts and companionship. Thanks also to Ken Penton, who has served most ably as our Caddy Master for the past four years. He will be replaced by Bruce Mottle.

At the annual general meeting, it was decided to support junior - aged players by offering reduced sectional fees and providing a contribution of $500 to the CBF which is sponsoring the 1997 World Junior Bridge Championships. We will raise funds through our 50/50 draws and at two Unit games. Watch for further details.

Congratulations from all of the members of Unit 390 to Judy and Nick Gartaganis who were members of the team which finished second in the 1996 Canadian National Team Championships. Special recognition also goes to Judy who recently won the Hattie Joffe trophy at the Edmonton Regional. The trophy is awarded to the Alberta player who wins the most masterpoints at the Alberta regional each year. It's nice to see the trophy remain in Calgary. In addition, Judy is the first woman to win the award.

July 14 - 20, 1997 will be the White Hat Regional in Calgary at the Marlborough Inn. Heather Girvitz has volunteered this mammoth undertaking. Calgary is famous for its hospitality and I am confident that we will all work together to make 1997 the best one yet. Don't wait to be called - volunteer now to help.

I hope you have a great year. Let's work hard to make this the wonderful game that it is. Have fun and see you at the table.

RUDENESS AT THE TABLE

by Stan Matheson

Last call had arrived at the Rehash Cafe and Pub with Mutt and Jeff trying to glean more sage advice from the Champ, now smiling mindlessly at the waitress who was waiting patiently for these three clowns to clear the tab.

"How do handle yourself when you see people being rude at the table ?" Jeff asked the Champ who looked like he needed help in deciding what topic would best suit his need to babble.

"Well there is rudeness and there is rudeness" started the Champ. "I guess I should be clearer than that." he continued. Having gathered his thoughts together he started to make a little more sense.

"Mostly I find that players aren't rude to me because they are lower in the pecking order than I am and save their bad manners for the people they can peck upon."

"So you think rudeness comes mostly from bullies ?" Mutt asked clearly dissatisfied with the quality of the answer.

"No the bullies are in the minority and can be dealt with by simply standing up for yourself and calling for the Director, or filling out a player memo when they try out their routines. You may not believe this but one of life's most satisfying moments in a director's career is being able to tell a bully where and when to go. Nope most of the rudeness comes from one of the following reasons :

1) Players who grew up playing bridge like a poker game and honestly believe that Uncle Fred really knows all about the game and how it should be played. Education takes care of those problems without any fuss or bother.

2) Not being skilled at confrontation. People are trained to get along with others at home, in sports, in business etc. Consequently when something happens at the bridge table and the director is called; players are reacting to something strange: a situation of confrontation rather than reconciliation. The Director arrives at the table and is asked to solve the following:

The bidding went like this and then Fred paused for at least a minute - I did not - Yes you always pause - No I don't. Regardless of the ruling all the players would leave the game talking about the rudeness of their opponents. Contrast the above with the following scenario: The auction went bid bid bid and then my opponent had a problem which he considered and then bid and I am calling for protection for both sides. Players have to learn to use noninflammatory language when involved in a confrontation.

3) Bad choice of remarks. Your opponents reach a grand slam in an 8 card fit which requires not only a finesse of the trump king but it must fall doubleton. As your opponent drops your king, smiles at you and says Thank You, you feel your hands reach out and tear out his throat. Which of the two of you is the rude one?

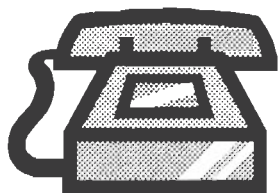

4) You get to a contract and it comes through and hear one opponent tell the other that he never heard such a stupid auction in all of his life.

5) Ego bashing. A typical remark would be: Just follow my defence since you don't know enough about the game to feed a hummingbird.

Anyway I think that I had better call a cab and be off so see you guys later. "

PHONE LIST

The new phone list is available. You will be able to pick it up from one of the main clubs. Or, if you prefer you can phone Dan Bertrand at 288-8828 and have it mailed to you.

INTERNET

Ernie Boushy is trying to create a list of Unit members who are on the Internet. If there is enough interest, various articles might be transmitted through the information highway. Please email Ernie at Boushye@cuug.ab.ca to give him your email address and suggestions on how our Unit could use the Internet.

NEW ALERT PROCEDURE

by John Davison

NEW ALERTS

- Limit or forcing jump-raise over take-out double (1S X 3S ; 3S is assumed to be weak unless alerted)
- Strong or intermediate jump-overcalls (1H 2S ; 2S is weak unless alerted)
- Penalty doubles of overcalls below 3NT (1H 2D X ; the double is assumed to be negative)
- Non-forcing 2C opening bids
- Very light ('Drury') 3rd and 4th seat openings
- Non-forcing 3-level suit responses to 2NT
- Canape openings, such as Precision 1D

NEW NON-ALERTS

- Two-over-one forcing to game
- 2NT 'asking' response to weak two-bids
- Negative doubles below 3NT if they
  - a) follow a natural overcall of a 1-level opening;
  - b) are intended for takeout; AND
  - c) focus on unbid major suitsNOTE: it does not hurt to ANNOUNCE: 'Negative'
- Cuebids which are forcing and 'unsurprising'
- 1H/S over 1C possibly bypassing a diamond suit
- 1S showing 5 cards over:
  - a) Partner's 1H opening; OR
  - b) RHO's 1H overcall
- 2C/D on 3 cards after a forcing 1NT response
- Non-specific 'waiting' responses to strong openings:
  - a) 2D negative or waiting over a strong 2C; OR
  - b) 2NT negative or waiting over strong 2-bids

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- 1NT range not completely within 15-18 HCP (Announce range; example: say '11 to 14')
- Jacoby transfers over 1NT openings (Announce: 'Transfer')
- Forcing 1NT responses to major-suit openings (Announce: 'Forcing')
- Optional: non-alertable negative doubles (Can announce: 'Negative')

Note: A failure to announce is a failure to alert. But let's be understanding as we all attempt to learn this new procedure.

IMP PAIRS

by Daniel Bertrand

What is the difference between IMP Pairs and Matchpoints? At Matchpoints, you score 1 point for each pair you beat on a board; at IMPs, your score is compared to the average score on every board. For example, in a 10 table event, you get to 6 NT for a score of 990 while everyone else get to 6 Spades for 980. At matchpoints, this is a Top because you have beaten all the other Pairs (who sit in your direction). But at IMPs, you get the same score as everyone else. Everybody gets 0 because no one did much better than anyone else. Another example: everyone is in 2 Spades making 3 for a score of 140, but you make 4. At Matchpoints, it is irrelevant whether or not you bid 4 Spades since you have already beaten everyone else for a Top. But at Imps it makes a huge difference: if you have not bid 4 Spades you will get 1 Imp while everyone else in your direction gets 0 Imps because your score of 170 is slightly above average; but if you have bid 4 Spades and are vulnerable for a score of 620, you will get 10 Imps because your score is so much more above average. Also at Matchpoints, you cannot get a negative score since the worst you can do is get the lowest score on a board for a 0. But at Imps, if your score is below the average for a board you lose Imps.

Imp Pairs require a slight change in strategy from Matchpoints. When playing a hand, your goal is to make your contract. Do not try for overtricks unless your contract is secure. On defense, try to beat the contract; look for any chance even though it could give the declarer some overtricks. Bid aggressively to vulnerable games since you gain many Imps when they make. Do not make aggressive doubles: if you beat them by one trick and they are vulnerable, you might get an extra Imp if you have doubled; but if they make it (especially if your double helped the declarer to place the cards around the table), you will lose many Imps. Be relaxed and play good bridge.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Caroleigh Houghton and Dann Kramer who tied the knot on August 3rd. Apparently Dann enjoys Caroleigh's squeezes and Caroleigh tolerates most of Dann's T-shirts. We wish them all the best.

Congratulations to Gordon Campbell who along with Peter Jones won Flight A of the Calcutta held in Red Deer. The event was well run and most enjoyable.

Judy Gartaganis won the Hattie Joffe Trophy at the Edmonton Regional. She managed to overtake Piotr Klimowicz (an Edmontonian) when she led her team to an exciting come-from-behind victory in the last event of the tournament. Well done!

Congratulations to everyone who participated in the Edmonton Regional. Many members of our Unit played very well. We will not attempt to name them all since we always seem to overlook someone.

Congratulations to Nick and Judy Gartaganis who almost won the Canadian National Team Championship held in June. They, along with their teammates, had to settle for second. Most impressive.
